No. 1-39/69-VS.—In pursuance of Rule 135 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly, 1964, “Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Bill, 1969 (Bill No. 29 of 1969) as introduced in the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly on the 22nd September, 1969 is hereby published in the Himachal Pradesh Government Gazette.

SURENDRANATH,
Under Secretary.

THE HIMACHAL PRADESH INDUSTRIAL ESTABLISHMENTS (NATIONAL AND FESTIVAL HOLIDAYS AND CASUAL
AND SICK LEAVE) BILL, 1969

(AS INTRODUCED IN THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY)

BILL

to provide for the grant of national and festival holidays and casual and sick leave to persons employed in Industrial Establishments in Himachal Pradesh.

BE it enacted by the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly in the Twentieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Himachal Pradesh Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act, 1969.

Short title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Definitions.

(a) “day” means a period of twenty-four hours beginning at mid-night: Provided that in the case of a worker who works in a shift which extends beyond mid-night, such period of twenty-four hours shall begin when his shift ends;

(b) “employer” in relation to an industrial establishment, means the person who has the ultimate control over the affairs of the industrial establishment, and where the affairs of any industrial establishment are entrusted to any other person, whether called a managing agent, manager, superintendent or by any other name, such other person shall be deemed to be the employer;

(c) “Government” means the Administrator of the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh;

(d) “industrial establishment” means—

(i) any factory as defined in clause (m) of section 2 of the Factories Act, 1948, or any place which is deemed to be a factory under sub-section (2) of section 85 of that Act; or

(ii) any plantation as defined in clause (f) of section 2 of the Plantations Labour Act, 1951;

(e) “Inspector” means an Inspector appointed under sub-section (1) of section 7;

(f) “notification” means a notification published under proper authority in the Official Gazette;

(g) “Official Gazette” means the Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh;

(h) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(i) "wages" means all remuneration (whether by way of salary, allowances or otherwise) expressed in terms of money or capable of being so expressed which would, if the terms of employment, expressed or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to a worker in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, but does not include—

(a) any bonus;

(b) the value of any house accommodation, supply of light, water, medical facilities or other amenity or of any service or of any concessional supply of food grains or other articles;

(c) any contribution paid or payable by the employer—

(i) to any pension or provident fund, and the interest which may have accrued thereon; or

(ii) for the benefit of the worker under any law for the time being in force;

(d) any travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession;

(e) any sum paid to the worker to defray special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment; or

(f) any gratuity payable on the termination of employment; and

(j) "worker" means—

(i) any person (including an apprentice) employed in any industrial establishment to do any skilled or unskilled, manual, supervisory, technical or clerical work for hire or reward whether the terms of employment be expressed or implied; or

(ii) any other person employed in any industrial establishment whom the Government may, by notification, declare to be a worker for the purpose of this Act.

National and Festival Holidays.

3. (1) Every worker shall, in each year, be allowed in such manner, and on such conditions, as may be prescribed—

(a) three national holidays of one whole day each on the 26th January, 15th August and 2nd October; and

(b) four other holidays on any of the festivals specified in the Schedule:

Provided that for purposes of clause (b), where at least ten percentum of the workers of an industrial establishment so desire, they may, in lieu of any festival holiday, avail of two half holidays on any of the festival days of their choice specified in the Schedule after settlement in this behalf has been made between the employer and the representatives of the workers in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Government may, by notification, add to or omit from the Schedule any festival, and thereupon the Schedule shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Casual and sick leave.

4. Every worker shall in each year, be allowed by the employer casual leave for seven days and sick leave for fourteen days in such manner, and on such conditions (including a condition to the effect that one kind of leave shall not be linked with another kind of leave, whether due under this Act, or under any other law for the time being in force), as may be prescribed.

5. (1) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, every worker shall for each of the national and festival holidays and of the days of casual or sick leave, be paid by the employer wages at a rate equivalent to his average daily wage:

Wages.

Provided that—

- (a) no worker shall be entitled to be paid such wages for any holiday or leave, other than a national holiday, if his name was not on the rolls of the industrial establishment continuously for a period of one month immediately preceding such holiday or leave;
- (b) where a worker is entitled to sickness benefit under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 or sickness allowance under the Plantation Labour Act, 1951, he shall not be entitled to be paid such wages for the days of sick leave allowed to him under this Act; and
- (c) where a worker is not entitled to such sickness benefit or sickness allowance, he shall be paid wages for the days of sick leave allowed to him under this Act at a rate equivalent to one-half of his average daily wage.

(2) Where a worker works on any holiday allowed under section 3, he shall, at his option, be entitled to—

- (a) twice his average daily wage for that day, or
- (b) his average daily wage for that day and a substituted holiday with his average daily wage on any other day within ninety days from the day on which he so works.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the average daily wage of a worker shall be computed on the basis of his total full-time wages during the preceding three months, exclusive of any overtime wages, if any:

Provided that the average daily wage of a worker who is paid wages by the day or at piece rate shall be computed on the basis of his wages for the days on which he actually worked during the month immediately preceding such holiday or leave.

6. Every employer shall keep, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, an account of festival holidays, casual leave and sick leave of every worker and every worker shall have access to such account.

Account of holidays and leave to be kept.

7. (1) The Government may, by notification, appoint such persons or class of persons as it may think fit to be Inspectors for carrying out the purposes of this Act for such areas as may be specified in the notification.

Inspectors.

(2) Every Inspector shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

8. Subject to any rules made by the Government in this behalf, an Inspector may, within the area for which he is appointed—

Powers of Inspectors.

- (a) enter at all reasonable times any place which is, or which he has reason to believe to be, an industrial establishment;
- (b) make such examination of the premises and of any prescribed registers, records and notices and take on the spot or otherwise the evidence of such person as he may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act; and

34 of 1948
69 of 1951

45 of 1860

(c) exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act:

Provided that no person shall be compelled under this section to answer any question or give any evidence tending to incriminate himself.

Penalties.

9. Any employer who contravenes any of the provisions of section 3, section 4, section 5 or section 6 shall be punishable, for the first offence, with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and for a second or subsequent offences, with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

Power to recover wages.

10. (1) Where a Magistrate while convicting an employer under section 9 is satisfied that the worker has not been paid his due wages under this Act, the amount of which shall be determined by the Magistrate, he shall direct the employer to pay such wages to the worker.

(2) The amount of wages determined under sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of recovery be deemed to be a fine imposed under this Act, in addition to the penalty imposed under section 9 and shall be realised as such.

Penalty for obstructing Inspector.

11. Whoever wilfully obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of any power conferred on him by or under this Act, or intentionally omits to produce on demand in writing by an Inspector any register, record or notice in his custody which may be required to be kept in pursuance of this Act or of any rule made thereunder shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Cognizance of offences.

12. (1) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder except on a complaint in writing by an aggrieved person or an Inspector.

(2) No Court below that of a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

Exemptions.

13. (1) Nothing contained in this Act shall apply to—

(a) any worker drawing wages exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem and employed mainly in a managerial, administrative or supervisory capacity;

(b) any worker employed in an industrial establishment under the control of the Government or Central Government or any State Government to whom the Civil Service Rules or any other similar rules or regulations notified in this behalf by the Government, Central Government or any State Government as the case may be, apply; and

(c) any worker employed in any mine or an oil field.

(2) The Government may, in public interest by notification, exempt either permanently or for a specified period any class of industrial establishments from all or any of the provisions of this Act subject to such conditions as the Government may deem fit.

Rights and privileges under other laws etc. not affected.

14. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges which any worker is entitled to receive under any other law, contract, custom or usage, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

15. (1) The Government may, by notification and after previous publication, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

- (a) the manner in which, and the conditions on which, national and other holidays shall be allowed to workers under section 3;
- (b) the number of days for which, the manner in which, and the conditions on which, casual and sick leave shall be allowed to workers under section 4;
- (c) the form in which and the manner in which an account of festival holidays, casual leave and sick leave of workers, shall be maintained by employers under section 6; and
- (d) any other matter which is to be or may be provided.

(3) In making a rule under this section, the Government may provide that a contravention thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(4) Every rule made under this section, shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of not less than fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, the Assembly makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

16. (1) The Punjab Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act, 1965 as in force in the territories added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966, is hereby repealed.

Repeal and saving.

(2) The repeal of the Punjab Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act, 1965 by sub-section (1) shall not affect—

- (a) the previous operation of that Act or anything duly done or suffered thereunder;
- (b) any penalty or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against that Act; or
- (c) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such penalty or punishment and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty or punishment may be imposed as if that Act has not been repealed.

(3) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-section (2), anything done or any action taken, including any appointment, order, notification or notice made, issued or given under the provisions of the Act repealed by sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Punjab Industrial Establishments (National and Festival Holidays and Casual and Sick Leave) Act, which provides for the grant of national and festival holidays and casual and sick leave to persons employed in Industrial Establishments is in force in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh under section 5 of the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966. But no such law is in force in the areas, as comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately before 1st November, 1966. With a view to bringing about uniformity, it has been considered necessary to have one unified law on the subject for the whole of Himachal Pradesh, so as to provide the benefits of holidays and leave to the workers in the industrial establishments in old areas of this Pradesh as well and this Bill seeks to achieve the object.
